With reference to the letter dated August 11, 1936 from the Netherlands Consulate General enquiring about a Javanese named Amat bin Joeso, I have to state that there is nothing in Police records regarding this individual.

Enquiries have been made at the Work Shelter now located in the old Amoy Road gaol building, where Joeso is stated to be living, but the principal of the Shelter declares that no such person is staying on the premises. However, a few days ago, a man short in stature described as having a pock-marked face and who may have been a Javanese, called at the Work Shelter in Amoy Road and requested assistance. None was given him and he has not been back since.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that a certain Amat bin Joeso called at this Consulate General and applied for assistance.

He stated to have been born in Batavia, Tandjong Prick, Java, in 1902, his parents being natives of Menado, who died a long time ago.

About 1932 he stated to have left Java on one of the steamers of the Java China Japan Line as a deckpassenger and went to Shanghai to look for work, his profession being that of a mechanic. According to his statement he stayed in Shanghai for about 3½ years, during which time he did not succeed in finding work.

He is supposed to have lived in lodging houses and according to his statement he received occasionally money from friends here.

At last he is said to have succeeded in leaving Shanghai as a stowaway for Hongkong where, after a stay of a few months he was arrested by the police as he was not in possession of a passport.

C.M.R.
He informed me that he visited the Netherlands Consulate General in Hongkong and that the police, after having kept him in custody for about 4 months, sent him back to Shanghai. He is supposed to have stayed in Hongkong altogether for about seven months and to have arrived in Shanghai about one month ago.

According to his statement he has been in possession of a passport, issued at Batavia, which he lost a long time ago.

Pending inquiries in Hongkong and Batavia Amat has been provided with a place in the Work Shelters of the Municipal Council.

I should feel greatly obliged to you if you would inform me whether anything is known concerning this person, whose face
